Our Mission Statement

First Presbyterian Church of Northport is a welcoming community that invites all people to learn about and respond to the Word of God as found in the Old and New Testaments. Our mission is to be shaped by, proclaim, and live out the good news of Jesus Christ. We are committed to supporting the spiritual development of our congregation by feeding the spiritually and physically hungry, caring for the sick and lonely, nurturing children, and reaching out to those in need in our local and global communities.

PRELUDE

"Pie Jesu (O Merciful Lord)"
Dr. Brenda Clark

Gabriel Faure
Arr. David H. Pettit

*CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Rev. Rachel Vione

This is the night that Christ, the Lamb of God, gave Himself into the hands of those who would slay Him.

This is the night that Christ gathered with His disciples in the upper room.

This is the night that Christ took a towel and washed the disciples' feet.

This is the night that Christ our God gave us this holy feast, that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may here proclaim His holy sacrifice and be partakers of His resurrection and at the last day may reign with Him in heaven.

"Go to Dark Gethsemane"

REDHEAD

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

We confess tonight that we are like those who crucified our Lord.

We are like those who denied Jesus—refusing to claim him as Lord of our whole life.

We are like those who have mocked him—forgetting his power in this world.

We are like those who made him a crown of thorns—diminishing his authority in our lives.

We are like those who hung him on a Cross—choosing the allure of violence and fear rather than justice and peace.

We are like those who turned away their gaze—afraid to enter into the suffering of this world.

Forgive us. Have mercy upon us.

On these days of emptiness and death before the Resurrection we begin tonight to offer our confessions to you in silence.....

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS (responsive)

Even in the darkness of this night, even in the emptiness of these hours that stretch out before Easter morning the promise of the Resurrection is still at hand.

It is a dim light, and yet to the light we cling.

Give us grace to receive this assurance of your love.

Grant us peace on this night. Amen.

“New Commandment”

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (in unison)

Adapted from John 13:34

On this night Christ gathered with His disciples. And Jesus said: I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. Amen.

*RESPONSE OF PRAISE

“What Wondrous Love Is This”

Hymn No. 215, v. 4

And when from death I’m free, I’ll sing on, I’ll sing on; and when from death I’m free, I’ll sing on; and when from death I’m free, I’ll sing and joyful be, and through eternity, I’ll sing on, I’ll sing on; and through eternity I’ll sing on.

“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”

HAMBURG

THE GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

SANCTUS [congregation sings]

*Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.*

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE SEVEN LAST WORDS OF CHRIST

THE TOLLING OF THE BELL

Frankie Dentrone

*In the darkness, the bell is tolled 33 times, representing the years of Jesus’ life, and the bible is slammed shut, echoing the tomb. The world is bereft of both the Light and the Word.
The congregation may remain in prayer or depart in silence.*

On Maundy Thursday (also called Holy Thursday) the church commemorates the Last Supper when Jesus broke bread with his disciples for the last time before his arrest and crucifixion. The word Maundy, a Middle English usage, derives from the Old French and Latin mandamentum, meaning commandment. This evening’s music reflects the somberness and sadness of the last hours of Christ’s life.

The Easter Dawn Service will be held Sunday at Northport Village Park beginning at 7 a.m. In the event of inclement weather, please gather at Trinity Episcopal Church on Main Street. A light breakfast follows at Trinity Church.

Our Easter worship celebration will take place here in the sanctuary at 10:00 a.m. The service includes communion, special music, and the flowering of the cross.
